Allen County youth job placement efforts among the state's best

BUSINESS, TOP STORIES

By J Swygart - jswygart@limanews.com

LIMA — A statewide program created a mere 16 months ago effort to provide greater assistance to young job-seekers who are attempting to overcome barriers to employment has had over 100 graduates in Allen County.

Anthony Cook graduated from Perry High School in May and Ohio Means Jobs and Diamond Manufacturing worked together to help him gain the skills he needs to build his career.

WIOA INFO:

- Through the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), we can help fund eligible job seekers with the following:
  1. Educational programs
  2. On-the-Job training
- Funding available for training in an in-demand occupation that will allow a person to become self-sufficient
- WIOA is NOT an entitlement program - based on the eligibility & suitability of a person to complete a training program

EDUCATION FUNDING

Educational programs

- We can assist with tuition, books, and supportive services (travel, uniforms, testing fees, etc)
- Need to know the institution and training program you want
- Short-term or long-term training (Certificate, Associate's degree or last 2 years of Bachelor's degree)
  - Focus is 9 months or shorter; however, a caseworker will review your training preference with you.
- It must be an in-demand occupation in Allen County
  - 200 openings statewide per year
  - Search www.Ohiomeansjobs.com -> In Demand icon
- WIOA training accounts cannot be issued to anyone who is currently in default status on student loans.
